Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 10 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright or sunny spells. Scattered showers developing, especially in east.

Today:
A cloudy and misty start in the north, otherwise bright with some sunshine. A lot of dry weather especially this morning. Scattered showers developing this afternoon, mostly in the east with some heavier showers likely.

Tonight:
Showers mostly dying out to leave a dry night with some clear periods although rather cloudy in the north and west. Southerly winds freshening along the West Coast by morning.

Wednesday:
Dry, bright morning across eastern Scotland and Northern Isles. Band of rain reaching West Coast later in morning, becoming heavier for short time, extending eastwards during afternoon and evening.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Mainly dry, bright start to Thursday then rather cloudy, showery weather moving in from the Atlantic with stronger winds. Friday and Saturday will stay rather cloudy, breezy with further showers.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.